What Are Cookies?

Cookies and similar technologies are very small text files or pieces of code that often contain a unique identification code. When you visit a website or use a mobile application, a computer requests permission from your device to store this file and access its information. Information collected through cookies and similar technologies may include the date and time of the visit and details on how you use a particular website or mobile application.

Why Do We Use Cookies?

Cookies ensure that:

- You remain logged in during your visit to our online store.
- All items in your shopping cart are retained.
- You can shop securely, and the website functions smoothly.

Cookies also help us monitor how our website is used and identify areas for improvement. Depending on your preferences, our cookies may be used to present targeted advertisements that match your personal interests.

What Types of Cookies Do We Use?

Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the proper functioning of the website. Some actions enabled by these cookies include:

- Storing items in a shopping cart for online purchases.
- Saving your cookie preferences for this website.
- Retaining language preferences.
- Logging into our portal, as we need to verify your login status.

Performance Cookies

Also known as analytical cookies, these collect statistical information about how our website is used. We use this data to improve performance and optimise the website.

Functional Cookies

These cookies enhance the functionality available to website visitors. They may be set by our third-party providers or directly by our website. Features activated by these cookies include:

- Live chat services.

- Viewing online videos.
- Social media sharing buttons.
- Logging in to our website using social media accounts.

Advertising/Tracking Cookies

Set by external advertising partners, these cookies are used for profiling and tracking data across multiple websites. If you accept these cookies, we can display personalised ads on other websites based on your preferences and user profile. These cookies also collect data about how many visitors have seen or clicked on our ads, enabling us to optimise advertising campaigns.

How Can I Disable or Delete Cookies?

You can choose to disable all cookies except the necessary ones. Most browsers allow you to block cookies through their settings, and you can find instructions in their 'help' section. However, blocking cookies might prevent you from fully utilising all technical features of our website, potentially affecting your user experience.

We have made it easy for you to manage your consents.
